

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL GOSSIP

Wilkinson and Mrs. Ross
A beautiful social affair of the evening was the large party given by Mrs. E. Perrell and Mrs. Ridley R. Wilkinson at the home of their mother, Mrs. J. Kennerly. About twenty guests were arranged for pivot and those of the friends of these hostesses who played cards spent the afternoon at the party. The card players a little later, and the other guests were arranged in decoration of the rooms where the party was held. The dainty punch was served by Miss Lee Walton and Miss Serena. Here the profusion of daisies was combined with asparagus in a graceful arrangement. The table numbers were on big gold paper daisies and the places for the players, novel tallies in the same design. When scores were compared at the conclusion of the series of rubic it was found that Mrs. H. H. H. held high, Mrs. W. Carl second high, and Mrs. Goode Guerry low. Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Wilkinson presented Mrs. Fearnside a handsome library table scarf, embroidered with sprays of daisies, and an artistic glass basket with daisies and bearing a design to Mrs. Davis. To Mrs. Guerry went a dainty powder puff in shape of a daisy.

Following the game and the award of the prizes the hostesses, assisted by a number of their friends, served an exceedingly dainty ice cream which carried out the daisy theme of the affair. White ice cream embellished with golden pineapple simulate a daisy, and accompanying it was cake in white and gold, almonds, and mints in the shape of daisies. During the serving refreshments, a several-piece orchestra played delightfully. Those attending Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Wilkinson looking during the pleasure of the guests during this hour were James J. H. Randolph, J. G. Carter, J. E. Brown, E. W. Neate, H. Vickers, E. W. Elliott, A. M. Smith, C. H. Kennerly, N. S. Collins, V. Walton, S. J. Kennerly, and M. M. Guerry, and Miss Alice.

With A Browning-Fearnside's New Straw Bonnet They're Always Winners.

Henry Spencer, well-known and respected citizen of Watertown, N. Y., who reports he has gained 15 pounds since he began taking Tanlac and always tells his friends how this medicine restored his health.

"My friends often say: 'Never saw you looking better; what are you doing for yourself?' and I always tell them: 'Well, I am taking Tanlac now.'" recently declared Henry Spencer, 415 East St., Watertown, a well-known and highly respected citizen.

"For more than a year," he said, "I seemed to be run down all over. From 160 pounds I fell off to 135, lost my appetite and my stomach gave me no end of trouble. The little I ate caused me to bloat with gas and I was subject to dull, heavy headaches. I had no energy and it was all I could do to get around the house. I had dizzy spells when everything would blur before my eyes and I had to catch myself to keep from falling.

"Well, now I have gained 15 pounds, feel better in every way and can work as well as ever, since taking Tanlac. I relish what I eat, with a fine appetite, and gas, indigestion, headache and dizziness are completely gone. Yes, sir, I just can't say too much for Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.
